EXTENSION CENTER BARN AREA LIGHTING PROJECT
Representatives from the Watertown Chamber Ag. Committee; Megan Gruman, Marc Hoffman and Chuck Langner, met with the Board to propose partnering with the County on a project to update the lighting in the barn area of the Extension Center complex with LED fixtures. Facility Manager, Milo Ford, participated in this discussion. The total cost of the project, after an estimated rebate of $3,500.00, is $26,832.00. The Chamber Ag. Committee will provide approximately $10,000.00 in funding if the project can be approved before the 2017 Winter Farm show. The final cost to the County will be approximately $16,000.00, for which Mr. Ford noted there are sufficient budgeted funds. Motion by McElhany, second by Johnson, to proceed with the LED lighting project based on the proposed funding from the Chamber Ag. Committee; all present voted aye; motion carried.
COUNTY PROPERTY PRIVATE APPRAISAL
The Board discussed hiring a private property appraiser to appraise the County’s property on Highway 212, which was previously proposed as a location for a justice facility. Commissioner Gabel noted this appraisal would assist the County in entering into a possible agreement with the City of Watertown for the property known as the Watertown City Auditorium. Mr. Gabel advised this appraisal would cost approximately $1,500.00. Motion by McElhany, second by Hanten, to hire a private property appraiser, at a cost of up to $1,500.00, to appraise the aforementioned County owned property; all present voted aye; motion carried.

COUNTY EMPLOYEE HEALTH INSURANCE
The Board discussed proposals received for health insurance coverage for County employees. The Board will contact a local agent for more information on one of the plans proposed to the Board.
